Arapahoe County Commissioner Rod Bockenfeld to chair national committee
Bockenfeld to lead Fiscal and Intergovernmental Affairs Steering Committee for NACO

LITTLETON, CO --- Arapahoe County Commissioner Rod Bockenfeld has been named chairman of the 2013-2014 National Association of Counties Finance and Intergovernmental Affairs Steering Committee.

The National Association of Counties is the only national organization that represents county governments in the United States. It was founded in 1935 and it provides essential services to the nation’s 3,069 counties by providing a unified voice before the federal government, improving the public’s understanding of county government and assisting counties in finding and sharing innovative solutions to local government issues through education and research.

The Finance and Intergovernmental Affairs Steering Committee is responsible for NACo policy development on all matters pertaining to the financial resources of counties, fiscal management, federal assistance, municipal borrowing, county revenues, federal budget, federal tax reform, elections and Native American issues.

Bockenfeld has been active in NACo since 2005 and has served in several leadership positions on the Finance and Intergovernmental Affairs Steering Committee including six terms as a subcommittee chair.

“At a time when our federal government is entertaining tax reform, I can’t think of a higher honor than being allowed to represent the interest of our nation’s County governments,” Bockenfeld said.

Bockenfeld, who represents District 3, which includes portions of the cities of Centennial and Aurora, the Town of Foxfield and the towns of Bennett, Deer Trail and unincorporated eastern Arapahoe County, is serving his third, four-year term. He currently is Board Chairman and has served as Board Chairman in 2006, 2010 and 2011. He is the past chairman of the Denver Regional Council of Governments.

He represents Arapahoe County on a number of boards and committees including the Arapahoe County Water and Wastewater Authority Board of Directors, Southeast Metro Stormwater Authority, Aurora Economic Development Council and Colorado Counties Inc. Taxation and Finance committee. He also is chairman of the Boundary Control Commission, and is a member of the Regional Economic Advancement Partnership and the I-70 Chamber of Commerce.
