Arapahoe County seeking citizens to serve on advisory boards, committees

Littleton, Colorado – The Arapahoe County Board of County Commissioners has openings on advisory boards and committees and is seeking applications from residents who are interested in helping their community.

Applications are being accepted for the Centennial Airport Community Noise Roundtable, CSU Extension Advisory Committee, Open Space and Trails Advisory Board and the Retirement Board. The application deadline is March 9. Qualified applicants must be residents of Arapahoe County.

The Centennial Airport Community Noise Roundtable studies the noise and concerns of residents about noise created by Centennial Airport. The committee meets at 7 p.m. on the first Wednesday of the month at the Ramada Hotel and Suites, 7770 S. Peoria St., Englewood.

The CSU Extension Advisory Committee helps determine community priorities for Extension programs and for research-based information from Colorado State University. Current Extension programs include 4-H, horticulture, agriculture, youth development and family and consumer science. The committee meets the second Thursday in February, May, August and November at the Colorado State University Extension Office, 5804 S. Datura St., Littleton.

The Open Space and Trails Advisory Board members plan and develop an approach for the preservation of open space in Arapahoe County. Members make recommendations to the Board of County Commissioners regarding the distribution of revenue collected from the Open Space Sales and Use Tax. The board meets at 6 p.m. on the fourth Monday of the month at Lima Plaza, 6954 S. Lima St., Centennial.

The Retirement Board is responsible for approving all withdrawals from the County’s plan, retirements and expenditures related to investment manager’s fees, administrator’s fees and consultant fees. The board meets at 3 p.m. on the fourth Wednesday of the month at the Arapahoe County Administration Building, 5334 S. Prince St., Littleton.

For detailed information about the County’s boards and committees and to fill out an online application, visit www.co.arapahoe.co.us and click on online tools. Applications also are available at the Commissioners’ Office in the County Administration Building, 5334 S. Prince St., Fourth Floor, Littleton. For more information or to request an application by mail, call Carol Dosmann at the Commissioners’ Office at 303-795-4531.
