Getting to Know Arapahoe – Your County from A to Z available May 9

Arapahoe County’s 2012 annual report available in Denver Post, local newspapers and County buildings throughout May and June

LITTLETON, CO --- Beginning May 9, more than 160,000 Arapahoe County households will receive a copy of the County’s 2012 Annual Performance Report in their local newspaper.

The 2012 Annual Report – Getting to Know Arapahoe – Your County from A to Z – provides an overview of county government, including information about the wide range of programs and services offered by Arapahoe County.

“Throughout our 2012 Annual Report you will see examples of our Service First commitment to provide exceptional services, while at the same time being good stewards of your tax dollars,” said Commissioner Rod Bockenfeld, who serves as Board Chairman. “To us, Service First means being innovative, responsive and fiscally responsible. It means giving you a government that you can be proud of, and providing the best services possible, whether you are walking through our doors, calling us on the phone, visiting our web site or sending us an email.”

Residents will find a tear-out page of phone numbers, email and web addresses to connect them to the variety of programs and services offered by Arapahoe County. The report also includes a list of County departments and elected offices, a commissioner district map and an outline of services accessible through the County’s web site at www.arapahoegov.com.

Citizens also can read about Align Arapahoe and how Arapahoe County is using its performance management system to be the most efficient and effective county government in Colorado.

Arapahoe County produces its annual report in a newspaper format because at roughly 18 cents a copy, it is the most affordable and efficient manner to get this information in the hands of citizens.

Copies of the annual performance report will be available in the May 9 editions of the Denver Post, Aurora Sentinel and Buckley Guardian and in the May 12 Sunday Select edition of the Denver Post. The report also will be distributed in the Centennial Citizen, Englewood Herald, Glendale Cherry Creek Chronicle, I-70 Scout, Littleton Independent and The Villager Newspaper.

Copies of the report also are available in Arapahoe County government locations, and a .pdf version of the report is available through our web site at www.arapahoegov.com. If you would like a copy mailed to you, contact Suzan Dreher at 303-795-4630 or by email at s dreher@arapahoegov.com.
