Arapahoe County Commissioner, District 4

Nancy Jackson is serving her first term as Commissioner representing District 4.

Nancy's number one goal is to represent the citizens in her district to ensure they have the appropriate services needed to maintain their quality of life. Her priorities include preserving and enhancing the environment through the extension of the Open Spaces program, encouraging new jobs and employment opportunities and maintaining safe neighborhoods through the support of effective jails and courts.

As Commissioner, Nancy oversees the Human Services and Information Technology departments. She represents the County's interests on a variety of boards and committees including: Arapahoe/Douglas Works! Workforce Board, the Colorado Counties Inc. Land Use and Natural Resources and Public Lands committees, Centennial Airport/Community Noise Roundtable, Community Service Block Grant Advisory Committee, Arapahoe County Housing Authority, Metro Area County Commissioners, Metro Crisis Services Inc., National Association of Counties Justice and Public Safety Steering Committee and is a liaison for Tri-County Health.

Nancy taught in various positions at several colleges and community colleges, including five years as an assistant professor at Clemson University and 20 years at the Community College of Aurora. She has taught classes online as well as face-to-face courses. She has written a number of professional publications during her teaching career.

Nancy also established a consulting business in 1996 creating communication programs for major corporations, small businesses and the Armed Forces. She also has a property management company which is based in Arapahoe County.

Nancy is a Colorado native and currently lives in Aurora. She has three children and two grandchildren.
