Arapahoe County Communication Services Department wins three awards from national government communication organization

Communication Services recently won three national awards from the City-County Communication and Marketing Association, a national organization of city and county communication professionals.

Arapahoe County received a Savvy Award for the Fight the Bite campaign, and an Award of Excellence for its employee newsletter Countyline News and Colorado Benefits Management System marketing program.

The Savvy Awards competition recognizes outstanding local government achievement in communications, public sector marketing and citizen-government relationships. The Savvies salute skilled and effective city/county/agency professionals who creatively plan and carry out successful innovations.

In addition to the 3CMA awards, Communication Services captured 15 awards this year from various organizations, including the International Association of Business Communicators and the National Association of County Information Officers.
