Laura Koppel, Katrina Seymour, Tim Mulvey join Arapahoe County Communication Services Department

Laura Koppel, Katrina Seymour and Tim Mulvey recently joined the Arapahoe County Communication Services Department.

Laura Koppel is the County's Communication Services Specialist I and will help direct and develop marketing, public relations and education programs aimed at communicating with employees, citizens and visitors to Arapahoe County. She will oversee the employee newsletter, Countyline News, produce brochures, fliers and other collateral materials, write news releases, help manage the County's web site and Intranet, and oversee specific communication programs and special events, as assigned.

Previously, Koppel worked as a marketing specialist with the Adams County Department of Social Services, where she managed and directed public relations and marketing campaigns to recruit new foster and adoptive homes. Prior to Adams County, she worked in Cincinnati, Ohio as a marketing and communications specialist for Advantech Automation Corp., a worldwide industrial computer manufacturer.

Koppel has a Bachelor of Arts degree in Speech Communication from Miami University in Oxford, Ohio. She can be reached at 303-734-5464.

Katrina Seymour is a Communication Services Specialist II who will develop and manage marketing, public relations and education programs for the County's Human Services and Community Services departments. She will serve as the primary spokesperson for Human Services; produce brochures, fliers and other collateral material, write news releases, organize special events and help manage the County's web site and Intranet, as well as oversee specific communication programs, as assigned.

Her past employment experience includes working as an independent public relations and marketing consultant for Seymour Communications; corporate communications manager for Archstone-Smith, a national apartment management and development company; communications manager for Mercy Housing; executive marketing assistant for RC Squared, an oil and gas industry software development company; and morning news editor for TREN FM/AM station in the United Kingdom.

She has a Bachelor of Arts in Broadcast Journalism from Nottingham Trent University, Clifton Lane, Nottingham, UK. Seymour can be reached at 303-636-1945.

Tim Mulvey is the new Printing Services Supervisor, who manages the County's in-house, full-service print shop. He has 19-years experience in the printing industry, the last 12 years working as a senior supervisor in the in-house print shop at IHS Group, a worldwide information publisher based in Englewood.

Mulvey supervises a four-member printing staff that handles more than 3,600 work orders and 8.9 million impressions each year. He is a Junior Achievement facilitator who is pursuing a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration from Regis University, Denver.
