MEDIA RELEASE

Sheriff Awards 2004-2005 Scholarship

Each year, the County Sheriff's of Colorado (CSOC), Colorado's statewide sheriffs association, provides funding to be awarded as scholarships for 30 deserving high school and college students. The CSOC scholarships are to be used by the successful recipients to assist with a variety of educational expenses during the 2004-2005 academic year. During the past twenty-six years, the CSOC Scholarship Program has provided funding through contributions from the CSOC Honorary Membership, dedicated members of the community and businesses. "The CSOC scholarships are provided to individuals from the community who are full-time Colorado residents and plan to attend a Colorado university, college or trade school" said Arapahoe County Sheriff Grayson Robinson.

Sheriff Grayson Robinson is proud to announce that the Arapahoe County recipient of the 2004-2005 CSOC Scholarship is Ms. Keira Armstrong, a recent graduate of the Englewood High School. Ms. Armstrong plans to attend the University of Colorado in Colorado Springs and will pursue a major in Dentistry. A committee of citizens, appointed by Sheriff Robinson, selected Ms. Armstrong for the CSOC Scholarship, as the result of her demonstrated ability, character, sincerity and purpose.
