One swipe to find a job you like at Arapahoe/Douglas Works!

Swipe cards give workforce center customers faster access to free job search resources

Aurora, Colo. Arapahoe/Douglas Works! has introduced a new swipe card system for registered workforce center users to make it easier for jobseekers to get in and get on with their job search at any Arapahoe/Douglas Works! resource center.

“Now, our customers just swipe their card at the swipe pad when they enter a resource center to be automatically signed in to the center, or checked in to an appointment,” said Joseph M. Barela, Arapahoe/Douglas Works! division manager. “Previously, they had to sign in at a customer service desk, which was more time consuming.”

How to get an Arapahoe/Douglas Works! swipe card

Each swipe card attaches to a key ring and is registered to an individual workforce center customer. If you are already registered with Arapahoe/Douglas Works!, pick up your swipe card at your next visit to a resource center. New jobseekers should register with Arapahoe/Douglas Works! to receive a swipe card at either of the following locations:
