Free admission to the Arapahoe County Fair, Wednesday, July 26

Littleton, CO --- Entry to the Arapahoe County Fair is free for all attendees on Wednesday, July 26. Fair planners have waived the entry and parking fee to celebrate the finale of the County's 100th Fair, which is also the first event to be hosted at the County's new permanent Fairgrounds located at 25690 E. Quincy Ave., Aurora, CO 80016. There will not be a carnival or games tomorrow.

Free activities for the Fair finale include a Wagner heavy equipment rodeo, Mutton Bustin', interactive video games, a Toddler Driving School, catch and release fishing, a Hole-in-One competition, plus 4-H completion events, a petting zoo, alpacas, and agricultural and educational displays. The Fair also includes a face painter, balloon artist, pony rides, and various food and drink vendors including Gator Dun, specializing in gator burgers, gator on a stick, rocky mountain oysters, rattlesnake and catfish.
