Media Advisory

Politicians on the Roof?

Arapahoe County Commissioner and employees don hard hats to build Habitat for Humanity homes

On Saturday, Arapahoe County Commissioner Pat Noonan and staff will put on their hard hats and tool belts to help build new Habitat for Humanity homes in Englewood.

Where: 2079 W. Vassar Ave.
Denver, CO 80110 (in City of Englewood)

When: Saturday, Nov. 17
9 a.m. – 4:30 p.m.

Who: Arapahoe County Commissioner Pat Noonan and employees

Each year Arapahoe County receives funds from the Department of Housing and Urban Development to be used for the development, rehabilitation or acquisition of attainable housing in our community. This year a portion of the funds, $260,000, was given to Habitat for Humanity to acquire a property in Englewood to build eight homes (four duplexes). Four homes will be built this year and the remainder early next year.

Habitat for Humanity provides homes with low mortgage payments to stable, income eligible families. Families selected for the homes are chosen by Habitat for Humanity based on housing need, income, stability and ability to repay their mortgage. The new homeowner must contribute 500 hours toward building their home, along with many community volunteers and sponsor support.

Members of the media can arrange a photography/video time by calling Mindy Edstrom at 303-734-5464 or 303-961-3410.
