Provider Name	Description
CARE-ful Wheels Transportation	CARE-ful Wheels is a Christian-based company serving the Denver metro and front range areas, offering personalized door-to-door wheelchair transportation.
Developmental Pathways	Developmental Pathways is a private, non-profit organization that provides direct, door-to-door transportation services for developmentally disabled persons to Developmental Pathways programs. The service area includes Arapahoe and Douglas counties and service is provided on weekdays from 6 a.m. to 5 p.m. There are 13 vehicles in the Developmental Pathways fleet, eight of which are wheelchair lift-equipped.
First Ride (Previously managed by Seniors Resource Center, Inc.)	Arapahoe County and First Transit have teamed up to provide First Ride senior transportation services. The program provides seniors transportation to appointments, dining centers, grocery shopping and food banks in small, wheelchair-accessible buses. All buses are visually identifiable with the logo First Ride making it easier for seniors to recognize that their vehicle has arrived.
Midtown Express	Midtown Express, a private, for-profit organization, provides demand-responsive transportation to primarily elderly and disabled customers in Denver, Arapahoe, Adams, Douglas and Jefferson counties. Service is available from 5 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Saturday. Midtown Express maintains a fleet of six vehicles, two of which are wheelchair-accessible. 30,000 trips were provided in 2003.
Special Transit	Special Transit operates demand-responsive service in the Tri-Valley area of Adams and Arapahoe counties and in Brighton. These services are available to the general public and are heavily used by elderly and disabled riders. Service in the Tri-Valley area is offered on Tuesdays and Fridays and provided around 900 trips in 2006. In larger communities, service is provided Monday through Friday from 7:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Days and times vary in smaller communities and for regional service.
